The challenge in this writ petition is against Ext.P5 eviction order passed by the respondents. It is also complained that following Ext.P5 all movables belonging to the petitioner are put under lock and key by the respondents.

2. Learned Standing counsel for the respondents on instruction submits that it was decided to defer implementation of Ext.P5 giving more time to the petitioner to clear the arrears. It is also submitted that in view of such a decision, Ext.P5 has not been implemented till date. It is further submitted that they have not kept the place under lock and key as urged by the petitioner. In view of the submission made by the learned counsel for the respondents petitioner should not have the grievance atleast for the present. Petitioner will be free to enjoy the property without any restriction at present.

The writ petition is disposed of leaving open the contentions raised by the petitioner.

ANTONY DOMINIC, JUDGE
